LIKE RAINBOWS ON THE WATER, THEY CAME, SAILED, AND CAPTURED THE ATTENTION OF ALL WHO PASSED NEAR THE HARBOR ON THE WEEKEND. THE HOBIE CAT REGATTA RETAINED ITS NOW FAMOUS REPUTATION FOR WEATHER LUCK AS THE DISMAL FORECAST FOR SUNDAY TURNED INSIDE OUT TO BEAM SUN DOWN ON THE COLORFUL SAILS. THE LIGHT WINDS MADE THE RACE A LITTLE SEDATE FOR THE TASTE OF THESE SAILORS WHO PREFER THE THRILL OF HANGING TEN AS THEY SUSPEND FROM THE TRAPEZE, BUT LIGHT WIND IS BETTER THAN NONE AND YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING ALL THE TIME. LANDMARK CASE BENEFITS MATTAPOISETT

A decision handed down recently by the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court in the case of William Ramsey, a former police officer, and the State Division of Employment Security versus the Town of Mattapoisett was made in the town's favor and reversed a previous decision.

This decision in the town's favor is a landmark case, and its outcome will be of interest to all area towns who employ persons part-time, Selectmen announced last Tuesday.

Since municipalities have to pay 100 percent of unemployment compensation rather than the smaller percentage paid by private industry, this decision will have a great impact on towns having to pay for any similar case.

William Ramsey was employed by the town as a part-time police officer from September 30, 1980 to April 30, 1982. Ramsey's original claim for unemployment compensation was granted on January 4, 1982, on the basis of a determination by the Division of Employment Security that he was "partially unemployed".

A Board of Review hearing on February 8, 1982 requested by the town affirmed the decision. The town applied for a further review; this review was denied. The Wareham 4th District Court upheld the state board's decision.

The most recent Supreme Judicial Court decision reversed the previous District Court's decision. The Superior Court's interpretation concluded that the Legislature did not intend a part-time employee whose hours vary from week to week to be considered in partial unemployment for any week in which he does not work as many hours as a full-time employee.

The town had employed part-time police officers for many years. To characterize such employees as "partially unemployed" when both parties understood at the beginning of the employment relationship that the hours of employment were to be irregular and less then full-time is to torture the plain meaning of the term, the judgement states.

The Selectmen extended their compliments to Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming and to his assistant, Attorney Margaret A. Ishihara, who pleaded the case, for their diligent and successful pursuit of the judgement.

In other business Selectmen:

DISPLAYED a glittering plaque commemorating 35 years of square dancing at the wharf, made and donated by Ann and Lou Almond of Fairhaven.

Chairman John N. DeCosta accepted the plaque on behalf of the town on Saturday, July 21, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary square dance held at the Congregational Church Hall. Because of the inclement weather, the dance was moved from the wharf to the hall. The plaque will be displayed at the Town Hall for townspeople to view.

DeCosta commented on the great job the Rescue Squad did at a demonstration on safety practices and extrication from a car

HEARD a report from Selectman James Huntoon on a recent visit by Jack Conway, Jr., a realtor who is seeking land on behalf of Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc. The Ocean Spray company is looking for a larger site for its world headquarters and is considering Mattapoisett along with about 18 other sites within a 25-mile radius of Plymouth.

Huntoon and company representatives viewed the proposed site off North Street which consists of about 200 acres, inspected where the entrance and egress could be located, reviewed the topographical maps of the area and discussed the advantages of building in Mattapoisett. Huntoon noted the company expects to make a decision sometime in the

Mattapoisett Historical Society

"BEDROOM CROCKERY" will be on exhibit this month at the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum (corner of Church and Baptist Streets). Every well-appointed bedroom had its "crockery". Some sets were very elaborate and costly and others were plain and functional. But a necessity they were.

The most elaborate sets consisted of basin, pitcher, slop jar, potty (sometimes called a thunder mug) with matching soap and powder dishes, trays, and hair receivers.

Many new bathrooms of today have double sinks so that two can brush teeth together. Have you ever seen a double commode with twin sets of crockery? That was the height of luxury .. the 'his' and 'hers' of the 1800's.

Of course they were not all crockery ... some were tin; beautiful tin with hand-painted stenciled designs and even included 'hot tubs'. So, you thought a hot tub was a new idea? Come see what the museum has....it was used in the old kitchen next to the wood-burning stove and it was a hot tub.

The Museum is constantly adding to its present collection of memorabilia. Plan to

Mattapoisett Recreation

"Christmas in July" was held recently at the Center School playground on Barstow Street.

It began with a tree trimming ceremony and continued throughout the week with the children making tree decorations and Christmas stockings. To top off the week's festivities, a party was held, complete with gift-giving, caroling and an early visit from St. Nicholas!

A contest was held also, and the children, aged 6 to 12, prepared pictures and stories on the theme "Christmas in Mattapoisett".

Sarah Harrison won first prize for her story: "Christmas in Mattapoisett" by Sarah Harrison - Christmas in Mattapoisett is a fun time of the year. With Christmas trees and Christmas presents wrapped with pretty bows.

Christmas is a time of caring and also a time of sharing. It's a time to show your love for one another.

In the following, obtained from the office of the Governor, is a call for the observance of Peace Day:

"Whereas all Americans need to reflect on the prospect of peace among the peoples of the world; and whereas a time should be set aside when people of all shades of opinion can come together in unity to consider the possibility for peaceful coexistence; now, therefor I, Michael Dukakis, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim Sunday, August 5th, 1984 as National Day of Peace in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and urge the citizens of the Commonwealth to take cognizance of this event and to participate fittingly in its observance."

Drivers Needed for Cancer Patients

Volunteers are urgently needed to drive cancer patients to and from their treatment centers, according to Frances Watkins, 25 Eddy Street, North Dartmouth, Transportation Coordinator of the Greater New Bedford Unit of the American Cancer Society.

"Through a series of unfortunate circumstances, our number of drivers has dwindled to ten. We must have more," she said. "We have had to curtail temporarily our services to Boston and Providence hospitals. Because of the limited number of drivers available, we now drive patients to an oncology facility in Fall River only."

Many patients need treatments which require daily trips for several weeks. "Before I can agree to transport a patient, I need to know that a driver will be available every day the patient has a treatment. Volunteers who can regularly give one morning a week provide the backbone of our program."

Since last September the twenty volunteer drivers in the Greater New Bedford area have transported over 100 patients to treatment centers in Fall River, Providence and Boston.

If you would like to help drive cancer patients to receive life-saving treatment,

Phillips said "Please accept my congratulations on the success of your application and the quality of the museum services you provide". Children's Museum Director Rene Laubach said, "The support of the federal government is important not only in that it supplies much needed operating capitol but it also sends a message that the Dartmouth Children's Museum has come of age." The museum drew almost 40,000 visitors to its new location in South Dartmouth during its first year there.

Outings to Plymouth, Onset, Cape Cod; picnics, luncheons and clambakes are just part of the varied programs in progress.

On August 16th TWIN's second annual "Summer's Day in the Park" will give residents from 15 area nursing homes the chance to participate in a summer fair complete with horse & buggy rides, band music, clowns and more. These programs represent just part of the work in which TWIN Services is involved in helping to provide the best possible quality of life for nursing home residents.

TWIN, a non-profit, charitable organization, welcomes volunteers of all ages and needs donations from the public to continue its vital work! Call 996-3395 for information.

reputations for their way with musical theatre at New Bedford High School and with last summer's production of Jesus Christ Superstar at the Zeiterion, Grease is a spoof of and valentine to the age of bee-hives and hand-jives. Different from the movie, this original stage version of Grease is more intimate and moves like "Greased Lightnin'" through the trials and tribulations of those duck-tailed leather-jacketed heroes and poodle-skirted teased-haired heroines of the not-too-distant past.

Don Vasconcelles will act as Musical Director and Conductor, and Clay James will recreate the original Broadway choreography for the show. Don is orchestration teacher at New Bedford High School. Clay joins the team from New York City where he has performed in two professional productions of Grease.

On the following Wednesday, August 8th, John Salerno's Big Band will perform swing and sway music at 7:30 p.m. Both concerts will be held on the outside concert stage, under the stars. Rain date for Black Eagles is Sunday, August 12th.

The Eagles are led by Tony Pringle of England. The Black Eagles have performed for club, concert and festival audiences, and have been doing radio and television performances since 1971. They have produced 15 records and were nominated for a Grammy Award in 1975. The Band has been generally acknowledged as a top classic revival band featuring New Orleans style jazz.

The performance is funded in part by a grant from the New England Telephone Company through the New England Foundation for the Arts and the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

John Salerno's Big Band will perform easy listening music from the 30's and 40's. It's hard to resist the swinging sounds of Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, and other greats.

Salerno's Band has been keeping the dinner crowd at the Coonamessett Inn, Falmouth, entertained on Sunday nights. The Band's exuberance is catching and the music appeals to both young and old. It's toe-tapping music all the way.

This summer Salerno's Band is also appearing at The Pier, Newport, R.I. The Band has recorded two albums and Salerno has worked

NEW CHILDREN'S MUSICAL AT PBT

Children of all ages join the lovable dog Shaggy as he travels to Broadway to become a "star" in the new musical series "Shaggy Goes to Broadway", written by Ron Moran and being performed at the Priscilla Beach Theatre in Plymouth on August 2, 3, and 4 at 10:30 a.m. For reservations call 224-4888.

MOTHER GOOSE LAND COMES TO PBT

Have you ever thought about what ever happened to Old Mother Hubbard's children after they left their "old shoe" of a home, and became adults? What ever did happen to Little Red Riding Hood, Little Boy Blue, Little Miss Muffet and the others? The new hilarious comedy, "The Benediction of Mother Goose", presented by Priscilla Beach Children's Theatre on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, August 9, 10, 11 at 10:30 a.m., lets you meet all of our favorite Goose characters after they have grown up and returned home for a short visit.

This delightful fairy-tale, written and directed by Priscilla Beach Theatre's artistic Director, Geronimo Sands, stars Marnie DeMarch in the leading role of Olde Mother Hubbard. We see the old Mother pretending to be sick in order to give reason for a "Mother Goose Reunion" of all her children.

For reservations call Priscilla Beach Theatre at 224-4888. Priscilla Beach Theatre is a professional non-profit School of Drama for children and adults in Plymouth, which does not discriminate according to sex, religion or age.
